SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 16 September 1970

25X1

25X1
25X1 25X1 25X1 5.	25X1
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 5.	25X1
25X1 25X1 Called Vic Zafra, in the Office of Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said it would be impossible to resolve the matter before the adjournment of this Congress but agreed to try to clear the other provisions of the bill
25X1 5. Called Vic Zafra, in the Office of Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said it would be impossible to resolve the matter before the adjournment of this Congress but agreed to try to clear the other provisions of the bill	25X1
25X1 5. Called Vic Zafra, in the Office of Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said it would be impossible to resolve the matter before the adjournment of this Congress but agreed to try to clear the other provisions of the bill	25X1
Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said it would be impossible to resolve the matter before the adjournment of this Congress but agreed to try to clear the other provisions of the bill	25X1
Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said it would be impossible to resolve the matter before the adjournment of this Congress but agreed to try to clear the other provisions of the bill	; ; ;
time 'l'idelle TT des alle distriction de la laction de lactio	25X1	Management and Budget, on the status of our retirement legislation in the light of Treasury's adverse report on the funding title. Zafra said

SECRET

come in the next two days. (See Memorandum for the Record.)